An advanced online marketing tool for publishers

Nielsen Book2Look is a special biblet for books with 'Look Inside' functionality.

- Use Book2Look to market your titles via social media including Twitter, Facebook and Pinterest
- Embed them on your own website
- Share with book bloggers so they can add reviews and their own extra content
- Add unlimited video and audio using YouTube, Vimeo and SoundCloud
- Get in-depth analytics on your biblets to check progress across social media networks and websites to judge your success
- Generate QR codes
- Link to your Google Analytics account
- Create, edit and share as many times as you like!

Book2Look can be customised and provided to press contacts, bloggers as well as booksellers and online sites to allow maximum exposure to the consumer, providing so much potential for publishers of all sizes.
