

World of Books

The ethical partner for your end-of-life stock

Since 2002, we've been dedicated to doing good, protecting the planet, and supporting charities. As a global leader in the circular economy, we offer affordable, preloved books while supporting authors.

In 2023 we:

28 million
books rehomed

289,800
books donated

622,878
trees saved
